

Why do lids need to go in a bottle?

Loose lids (and other small items) are too small to be hand-picked from the conveyor line at the Material Recovery Facility.

BUT if you fill a bottle with them, they can be placed with mixed plastics and made into new plastic products.

www.wow.sa.gov.au

Why do lids need to go in a bottle?

Loose lids (and other small items) are too small to be hand-picked from the conveyor line at the Material Recovery Facility.

BUT if you fill a bottle with them, they can be placed with mixed plastics and made into new plastic products.

www.wow.sa.gov.au

Why do lids need to go in a bottle?

Loose lids (and other small items) are too small to be hand-picked from the conveyor line at the Material Recovery Facility.

BUT if you fill a bottle with them, they can be placed with mixed plastics and made into new plastic products.

www.wow.sa.gov.au

Why do lids need to go in a bottle?

Loose lids (and other small items) are too small to be hand-picked from the conveyor line at the Material Recovery Facility.

BUT if you fill a bottle with them, they can be placed with mixed plastics and made into new plastic products.

www.wow.sa.gov.au

FILL the bottle with

CLEAN plastic:

Lids

Straws

Bread tags

Glue sticks (empty)

to put in recycling bin.

FILL the bottle with

CLEAN plastic:

Lids

Straws

Bread tags

Glue sticks (empty)

to put in recycling bin.

FILL the bottle with

CLEAN plastic:

Lids

Straws

Bread tags

Glue sticks (empty)

to put in recycling bin.

FILL the bottle with

CLEAN plastic:

Lids

Straws

Bread tags

Glue sticks (empty)

to put in recycling bin.